JENNIFER DORMAN

2015 Maine Teacher of the Year

2014 Somerset County Teacher of the Year

Maine's 2015 Teacher of the Year is Mrs. Jennifer Dorman, a special education teacher and reading interventionist at Skowhegan Area Middle School. She has held this position since 2006. From 1993 to 2006, Jennifer was the K-6 special education teacher for MSAD 54, instructing students identified with disabilities in the subject areas of reading, writing, spelling, and math. Mrs. Dorman holds a Bachelor of Science in elementary education from the University of Maine at Farmington and a Master of Arts in education from Lesley University. She also serves as a course instructor for the Maine Education Consortium.

Somerset County Teacher of the Year nomination by:
Doug McEwen (Assistant Principal)

"Mrs. Dorman has a calling for teaching; she teaches her students to strive for excellence, love reading, and to respect one another."
